

Support Don't Punish 2023 Report

Support Don't Punish is a global grassroots-centred initiative in support of harm reduction and drug policies that prioritise public health and human rights. The campaign seeks to put harm reduction on the political agenda by strengthening the mobilisation capacity of affected communities and their allies, opening dialogue with policy makers, and raising awareness among the media and the public.

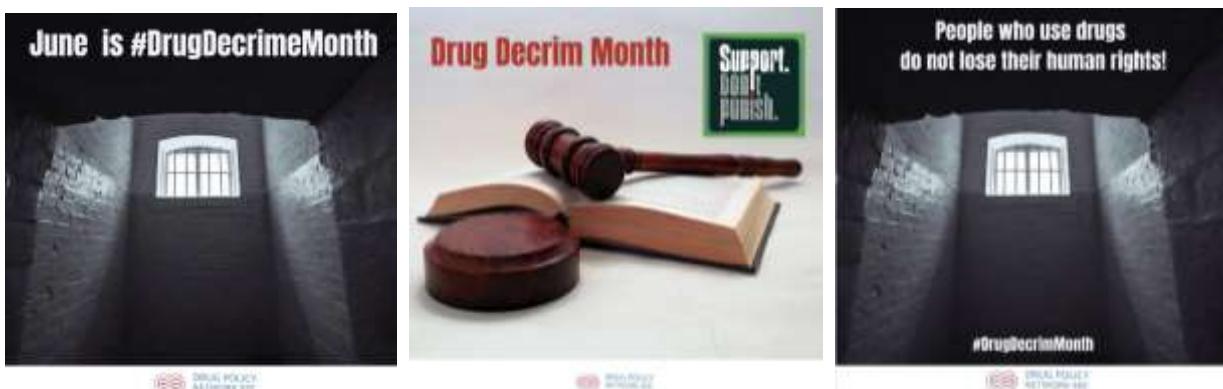

The campaign aligns with the following key messages:

- The drug control system is broken and in need of reform
- People who use drugs should no longer be criminalised
- People involved in the drug trade at low levels, especially those involved for reasons of subsistence or coercion, should not face harsh or disproportionate punishments
- The death penalty should never be imposed for drug offences
- Drug policy should focus on health, well-being and harm reduction
- Drug policy budgets need rebalancing to ensure health and harm reduction-based responses are adequately financed.

Information about the global campaign is available from the website <http://supportdontpunish.org>.

The Drug Policy Network South East Europe coordinates activities of the campaign in South East Europe around the Global Day of Action 26 June - which is also the United Nations' International Day against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking.

In 2023, we participated in activities of the #DrugDecrimmonth to contribute to fighting stigmatisation and criminalisation of people who use drugs.

Interested organisations were requested to send their proposals for actions directly to the call published by the campaign's global website. In addition, DPNSEE collected information from the organisations which applied and negotiated with those from countries which haven't had plans to participate. On the basis of these proposals, DPNSEE signed memorandums of understanding with leading organisations in each of the countries involved: Albania, Croatia, Kosovo*, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Romania and Serbia. Despite all efforts, we couldn't have found organisers in Bosnia Herzegovina and Bulgaria where all civil society organisations providing harm reduction services have closed their operations. Organising partners from Greece and Slovenia traditionally made a separate memorandum of understanding directly with IDPC.

For this year's campaign, the HOPS team has chosen the theme "Challenges Presented by New Trends in Drug Use." The campaign kick-started with the project coordinator making a guest appearance on a morning show broadcasted on the National Radio Television. The discussion focused on the "Support Don't Punish" initiative, highlighting the importance of introducing and implementing humane and effective drug policies. The coordinator emphasized the need for new treatment programs and campaigns to reduce stigma and discrimination against individuals who use drugs. HOPS has been advocating for the decriminalization of drug use for many years, and the addition of Article 215 is a significant outcome of these efforts. However, despite the changes and additions to the Criminal Code, it has been observed that the police still detain individuals in possession of very small amounts of drugs for personal use. During a public debate held on June 26, a legal expert and a HOPS volunteer highlighted the challenges faced by young people who use drugs.
